The Bethlehem Police Officers Union is completely funded by the generous contributions of its supporters. Donations to the Bethlehem Police Officers Union are used to support other community organizations in the Town of Bethlehem and the Capital District police community. No one involved with the Bethlehem Police Officers Union receives any compensation for their work. All officers of the union are volunteers. The Bethlehem Police Officers Union also donates to other Not for Profit organizations that make a difference in the quality of life in Bethlehem.

Thank you for your continued support.
